

Norfolk Local

(Continued.)

The Royal Blue.

The October number opens the fourth volume of the "Book of the Royal Blue," one of the highest grade and best known railway publications in the world. Through its "Book of the Royal Blue," the Baltimore and Ohio railroad has become famous in all civilized lands. Interesting articles are: "A Model Ticket Office," "Some Fast Trains of the B. & O. R. R.," "Electric Mobile Service of the B. & O. R. R.," "A Little More of Southern Ohio History," and "The Mammoth Coal Pier of the B. & O. R. R." This pier, which is located at Curtis Bay, Baltimore, and is one of the largest in the world, is illustrated by a fine full-page half-tone. The feast of good things closes with a full page of "Stub Ends of Thought," by Mr. Arthur G. Lewis, of Norfolk, Southern Passenger Agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

Spanish Prison Irons.

Detective Childress has some queer prison relics of the Spanish war. They were given to him by a sailor, who said they were taken. They are handcuffs and anklets made of the finest steel, and attached with steel chains. The sailor said that they were on a Cuban officer whom the Spanish had captured and held as a prisoner till the Americans rescued him.

U. S. SUPREME COURT.

NEELY CASES ADVANCED — A FATAL DEFECT.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 15.—The Supreme Court of the United States today granted the motion of the government to advance the Neely cases, and assigned them for hearing November 12. The cases came up from the Federal Court of New York on the decision of Judge Wallace denying a writ of habeas corpus. The government is very anxious for a decision which will settle the constitutional questions involved. The court also assigned for the same day the two cases which involve the great question as to whether the Constitution extends over the new possessions of the United States.

ILLINOIS CASE.

One is the case of Goetz, a New York tobacco importer, appealing from a decision of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York affirming the decision of the Board of General Appraisers, making tobacco dutiable under the Porto Rico tariff act.

The other comes to the Supreme Court under the title "Fourteen diamond rings vs. the United States." It comes up on appeal from the Federal Court of Illinois. One C. W. Peke, a soldier of a South Dakota regiment, which served in the Philippines, is the claimant. When he returned home from the Philippines he brought with him the diamonds. They were seized by the Federal authorities in Chicago and confiscated as smuggled goods. Through Peke's agency suit was brought to recover them on the ground that as the Philippines were part of the United States within the meaning of the Constitution and that no import duty could be levied, that the diamonds were not dutiable and, therefore, were unlawfully seized. The lower court, in both instances, sustained the action of the Federal authorities.

FAILURE TO REGISTER.

In the case of Daniel Gray Wiley, plaintiff, in error, vs. Shinkler and other election officers of South Carolina for refusing to allow the plaintiff to vote for member of Congress, the court held that Wiley's right to vote for member of Congress was undoubted, but that the plaintiff, having failed to register, that defect was fatal. The judgment of the lower court was affirmed.

CAPTAIN SHIELDS RELEASED.

FILIPINOS TURN PRISONERS OVER TO U. S. AUTHORITIES.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, Oct. 15.—The following official account of the rescue of Captain Shields and his command from the Filipinos has been received at the War Department:

"Manila, —
"To Adjutant-General, Washington:
"Information from Marinduque just received that Captain Shields and 43 men, Company E, United States Infantry, two corporals, Company A, Twenty-ninth regiment; one civilian; American negro, prisoners in hands of insurgents, have been turned over to General L. R. Hare. More particulars soon, giving names killed and wounded."
"MACARTHUR."

MISS GAST'S RIDE.

SHE BEATS BROWN'S RECORD BY THREE HOURS.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

New York, Oct. 15.—Miss Gast completed her ride of 2,000 miles at 7:05 1/2 this evening. She covered the distance in 222 hours 5 1/2 minutes, beating the record of Will Brown by three hours and one minute. At the conclusion of her ride Miss Gast was examined by two physicians who pronounced her in good condition. She said to-night that if she should be feeling as well as she expected in the morning she would start on another one thousand mile ride.

Will Import Gold.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

New York, Oct. 15.—It is announced that the National City Bank has engaged $2,500,000 gold for import. Officials of the bank said that the gold had been secured in South Africa and represents the first output of the mines of that country since the breaking out of the Boer war.

Internal Revenue Decision.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Washington, Oct. 15.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that certificates of nominations for office, such as are required by some of the States and all papers or instruments relating to the exercise of the elective franchise, are exempt from stamp tax.

Comes to Virginia.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 15.—John A. McCook, United States Consul at Dawson, has arrived here from the north on his way to New York and Virginia Hot Springs, where he will be treated for heart trouble. He had obtained leave of absence until March.

[From photographs taken especially for this paper.]

EVERYDAY SCENES IN THE LIFE OF THE ANTHRACITE COAL MINER.

The upper picture shows two miners with cans of the much discussed powder upon their shoulders. When photographed, they were returning the powder to a company store after the strike order had been issued. The lower picture shows the electric mule. This odd looking motor draws the coal cars in the mines, and one machine will perform the work of 12 mules.

STEVENSON IN JERSEY.

THE TRUST EVIL THE GREATEST IN THIS COUNTRY.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Bridgeton, N. J., Oct. 15.—The first touch of life was given the campaign here by the arrival of Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic Vice-President candidate, who arrived here shortly after noon. Mr. Stevenson dealt with trusts and imperialism. He pronounced imperialism as the paramount, overshadowing issue of the campaign. Speaking of trusts, he said: "The trust evil is the greatest evil of this country. In three years over 600 trusts have grown up, with a capital of $10,000,000,000, competition has been cut off and there is no chance for small capital. You have been told there are no trusts, or that the trusts were good trusts. I am inclined to think the good trusts, like the good Indians, are all dead. When they talk of four more years of prosperity, I am in favor of four more years of prosperity for the common people and not the trusts. The growth of these corporations has been so alarming that there must be stringent laws against them. Into whose hands will you put the enactment of these laws? Under whom have they grown? or who is opposed to the trusts and to whom are the trusts opposed, the Democratic party? The interests of your families and of the country are not identical with the interests of the men who have built up these enormous corporations."

A SECOND SPEECH.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 15.—Adlai E. Stevenson concluded his tour of south Jersey to-night by addressing a large meeting in the Courthouse. Five thousand persons were unable to obtain admittance in Camden over night. He will leave for New York City early in the morning.

MARK HANNA'S TOUR.

Idlm Aan EgoTA orlist 758908. 455 HE LEAVES CHICAGO FOR THE NORTHWEST.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Milwaukee, Wis., October 15.—Senator Hanna, Senator Freye, of Maine, and the other Republican notables who left Chicago this morning for a tour of the Northwest, made their first stop at Racine Junction, Wisconsin, where a large crowd composed principally of working men, from nearby shops was in waiting. "Hello, Mark!" cried some one in the crowd.

"Hello, how do you do, boys," said Senator Hanna with a laugh. Senator Hanna spoke briefly in part as follows:

"You have heard a great deal about the different issues in this campaign. There are only three weeks left and we have not time to talk about anything but the issue that interests you and me. And that issue is our condition at present and the continuation of it. The full dinner pail is the best argument I know of."

A voice "How a bout the coal mines." "The coal mines are all right. The strike will be settled this week."

"The only thing I know of that has got a superfluity of wind are Bryan Democrats. I want to ask this audience of working men what has W. J. Bryan ever done for the working people of this country? There is not a man here but who knows that William McKinley has been the best friend of the working people of any man this country ever produced."

Return of Refugees Postponed.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Cape Town, October 15.—Lord Roberts has ordered that the return of Refugees to the Transvaal colony be postponed for the present.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

BEGINNING OF GAMES FOR THE CUP.

Yesterday brought to a close the National League baseball season for 1900. All the clubs, with the exception of Pittsburgh and Chicago, complain of having lost money. As many as 230 people attended a game in Pittsburgh the other day, against 12,000 in former days. It is stated that none of the clubs will carry more than fourteen men next season.

Brooklyn and Pittsburgh met yesterday in the first game of the post-season series for the Chronicle-Telegraph Cup, in Pittsburgh. The Champions and Pirates are to play a series of five games for the possession of the trophy, which, unlike the Temple Cup, becomes the permanent property of the club winning three out of five of the series. Brooklyn won yesterday's game by a score of 5 to 2. The entire series will be played in Pittsburgh. The gate receipts will be divided equally among the players of both teams.

PITTSBURG, 2; BROOKLYN, 5. Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 15.—The post-series of ball games between Brooklyn and Pittsburgh for the world's championship and possession of a $500 trophy cup was begun to-day at Exposition Park in the presence of 4,000 enthusiastic fans.

The first game was won by Brooklyn with hands down. McGinnity, the "Iron man," had his opponents completely at his mercy up to the ninth inning, allowing only three dinky hits up to that time. In the ninth he hit a batter, gave a base on balls and two hits, saving Pittsburgh a shut out.

Score by innings: R.H.E. Pittsburgh . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 — 2 5 4 Brooklyn . . . 0 0 2 1 0 1 0 0 — 5 13 1 Batteries: Vaddell and Zimmer; McGinnity and McGuire. Time—1:50. Umpires—Hurst and Swartwood.

For the Galveston Sufferers.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

New York, Oct. 15.—The Bazaar for the Galveston homeless orphans was opened to-night in a large ball room of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel by General Nelson A. Miles. There was a large attendance. General Miles introduced Governor Sayers, of Texas, who graphically described the Galveston disaster. Mrs. William McKinley, wife of the President, sent the following telegram: "Your telegram has been received informing me of the opening of the Charity Bazaar under the auspices of the Women of America for the relief of the sufferers from the Galveston disaster. Please assure those in charge of this noble charity of my deep interest and my best wishes for its success."

Following Governor Sayers, General Wheeler spoke briefly.

The English Elections.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

London, October 15.—The total number of members of Parliament elected is 663, as follows:

Conservatives, 231; Unionists, 68; Liberals and Laborites, 154; Nationalists, 8.

Dr. Bull's COUGH SYRUP

Cures a Cough or Cold at once. Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Grippe and Consumption. Quick, sure results. Dr. Bull's Pills cure Constipation. 50 pills 10c.

THE MURDER OF GOEBEL.

YOUTSEY'S TRIAL RESUMED — STRONG TESTIMONY AGAINST HIM.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 15.—The trial of Henry E. Youtsey, charged with being a principal in the killing of Governor Goebel, was resumed to-day, although Youtsey was reported in the same condition as last week. His room door was opened and his bed pulled up in plain view and hearing of the jury, and while the witnesses were being examined Youtsey could be heard calling his wife's name in a hollow moaning voice and could be seen to be setting on his bed.

The feature of the day was the testimony of Arthur Goebel, brother of the dead Governor. He told of going to the jail the day Youtsey was arrested, and then said:

"I put my left hand on Mr. Youtsey's right shoulder and said: 'Mr. Youtsey, Colonel Campbell has said to me, and told me what you have said to him, and I have come over to have you tell me what you have told him—to tell me whether it is true—and to ask you a few other questions.' Mr. Youtsey said: 'Yes, Mr. Goebel, what I have told Colonel Campbell is true.'"

"I then said to Youtsey: 'Now, I would like to have you tell me about getting the key on Monday morning from Powers and about Dick Combs, and about going to see Taylor on Tuesday morning and where you got the cartridges.' Youtsey proceeded and said: 'Just as I told Colonel Campbell, I had a talk with Dick Combs on Monday morning and he told me that he was ready to do the shooting, and I went to Caleb Powers for the key to his office and he told me to go to John Powers. I went to John Powers and John Powers gave me the key. I went to Governor Taylor and told him that Dick Combs was ready to do the shooting. Governor Taylor said: 'You ought not to come to see me about this. I have been expecting it to be done for some time, but I object to having a negro do it. It is too important a piece of work. Combs may be a spy and he may betray you. Youtsey hesitated and I said: 'Very well, what did you do next?'"

"Youtsey said: 'I left Governor Taylor and on Tuesday morning I went back to him and said: 'The man to do the shooting is now here.' 'I interrupted Youtsey there and I said: 'You have told Colonel Campbell the name of that man, and that is one reason why I came over here to see you. Now, if you know that much you can also give me the name of the man.' and Mr. Youtsey said: 'Well, I told him Jim Howard was here. That I thought he got here Monday night.'"

"I asked: 'What else did Taylor say?' Youtsey said: 'Governor Taylor walked up and down the floor and said: 'Youtsey, what do you think? If Goebel is killed, do you think I could hold my office?' He discussed that matter, talking to me back and forth, and I said to him I thought if Goebel was put out of the way that the contest would be settled and that he could hold his office. Finally I said to him, as Governor Taylor hesitated still: 'It is up to you to decide now finally whether it is to be done or not,' and after some more hesitation Youtsey stated that Taylor said finally: 'Well, tell them to go ahead. If it is necessary I can send the men to the mountains with a squad of soldiers.' I said: 'Did he say anything about pardoning him?' and Youtsey said: 'Yes, that is so.' He said: 'If it is necessary I can pardon him and he will be safe enough.' Youtsey then stopped and I asked: 'What did you do then?' Youtsey said: 'I told Colonel Campbell, as he told me, that you let certain people into Powers' office.'"

"Youtsey said, 'Yes.' I then went back and reported. I told Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard to go and be in the hall of the Executive building, and I then left. I said, 'What did you do?'"

"Youtsey said: 'I went and got the cartridges. When I went back Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard were in the hall, and I unlocked the door and let them in and gave them the cartridges.' I again interrupted and asked Youtsey as to what he did with the cartridges, and he said: 'I gave them to Jim Howard. He was the last man who went in the door.'"

"I said, 'How many did you give him?' and he said, 'I gave him the whole box.' I said, 'Mr. Youtsey, who fired the shot?' and he said, 'I cannot tell you. I did not see him. I said, 'What did you do when you let them in?' He said, 'I stood near the door.' I said, 'You gave the cartridges to Jim Howard?' 'Yes, sir.' 'Where did you get the cartridges?'"

"He said: 'I got them from Powell and Clements, on Main street, in Cincinnati. On the 22d of January I wrote him and told him to send a box of 35-55 smokeless steel cartridges, Winchester.'"

"I said: 'Was he shot with a Winchester rifle?' He said: 'The cartridges fit either a Winchester or a Martin.'"

BERKLEY NEWS AND ADVERTISEMENTS

A CEMETERY INVADED.

Colored People Will Sue Street Railroad Company for Damages.

Statement of the Grievances of Lot Owners

Wedding at Bowers' Hill Election of Officers Death of a Former Resident Robbery—Brevities.

The Belt Line Railroad Company in extending its switch to the Union Stock Yards has cut their road-bed through the colored cemetery. In doing this the company has passed through about 400 yards of the old cemetery, and in some instances took an entire lot for the road-bed. The colored people who owned lots in this cemetery, in which their dead are buried, claim that in several instances the coffins were not removed, but graded over, and cross-ties were laid within a few inches of the caskets; hence these lot owners have secured the services of Judge George D. Mark, and will bring suit against the company to recover damages. The colored people say that Dick Paige, one of the cemetery trustees, sold the railroad company a right of way through their city of the dead without even consulting the persons most concerned. It is said by some that Paige provided a place to which the coffins were to be re-buried.

AN OCTOBER WEDDING.

Mr. T. V. Carter, of this place, and Miss Annie J. Cane, of Bowers' Hill, were married at the home of the bride's brother, Mr. W. W. Cane, Sunday, October 7th, at 2 o'clock, after which the newly wedded couple left on a Northern tour. They returned Sunday and will reside with Mr. Cane for the time being. Mr. Carter is making preparations to begin business in the town soon.

OFFICER ELECTED.

The Missionary Society of the Berkeley Avenue Baptist Church held a meeting Sunday afternoon, which was largely attended. After the reading of the program, which was much enjoyed, officers were elected for the ensuing term as follows: Mr. Bernard Herbert, president; Miss Ruth West, secretary; Miss Olive Scarborough, treasurer, and Miss Mamie West organist.

FORMER TEACHER DEAD.

A telegram was received here yesterday morning announcing the sad news of the death of Miss Beulah Edwards, a former teacher of the Berkeley Co-educational Institute, at Durham, N. C. Miss Edwards, while here, taught art and instrumental music, and was also a fine vocalist.

SCHOOL BOARD DIDN'T MEET.

There was no meeting of the School Board yesterday afternoon. In view of much business awaiting the immediate attention of the board a called meeting will be held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at which time several plans will be submitted by well known architects for the new school buildings.

SATURDAY NIGHT ROBBERY.

Saturday night between 12 o'clock and early morning some unknown person entered the residence of Captain W. C. Coffield, on Lee street, and stole his watch and $167 in money. The property was taken from his bed chamber. His trousers and vest were found Sunday morning near the side door, through which the entrance was made. Mr. Coffield, having a clue, turned the case over to a detective of Norfolk at once. It was rumored that he lost $71. He was paid that amount Saturday night, but hid it away. Detectives Hefel and West yesterday recovered seized: 'Yes, that is so.' He said: 'If it is necessary I can pardon him and he will be safe enough.' Youtsey then stopped and I asked: 'What did you do then?' Youtsey said: 'I told Colonel Campbell, as he told me, that you let certain people into Powers' office.'"

"Youtsey said, 'Yes.' I then went back and reported. I told Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard to go and be in the hall of the Executive building, and I then left. I said, 'What did you do?'"

"Youtsey said: 'I went and got the cartridges. When I went back Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard were in the hall, and I unlocked the door and let them in and gave them the cartridges.' I again interrupted and asked Youtsey as to what he did with the cartridges, and he said: 'I gave them to Jim Howard. He was the last man who went in the door.'"

"I said, 'How many did you give him?' and he said, 'I gave him the whole box.' I said, 'Mr. Youtsey, who fired the shot?' and he said, 'I cannot tell you. I did not see him. I said, 'What did you do when you let them in?' He said, 'I stood near the door.' I said, 'You gave the cartridges to Jim Howard?' 'Yes, sir.' 'Where did you get the cartridges?'"

"He said: 'I got them from Powell and Clements, on Main street, in Cincinnati. On the 22d of January I wrote him and told him to send a box of 35-55 smokeless steel cartridges, Winchester.'"

"I said: 'Was he shot with a Winchester rifle?' He said: 'The cartridges fit either a Winchester or a Martin.'"

"I said: 'How much did you send them?'"

"He said: 'I sent them a postoffice order for a dollar.'"

"Mr. Youtsey stopped, and I said to him: 'Mr. Youtsey, you have just told Colonel Campbell and told me that Monday morning you told to Governor Taylor and told him that Dick Combs was ready to do the shooting. If Taylor objected, and now you tell me on Tuesday morning you let Dick Combs into the office. How is that?'"

"Youtsey hesitated and then finally said: 'Well, those were the three men I let in. I looked at him and said: 'They say also that Berry Howard was in the left-hand lobby of the Legislature, and you say you let him in that room.' Youtsey finally said: 'Those are the three men I let in there.'"

seized: 'Yes, that is so.' He said: 'If it is necessary I can pardon him and he will be safe enough.' Youtsey then stopped and I asked: 'What did you do then?' Youtsey said: 'I told Colonel Campbell, as he told me, that you let certain people into Powers' office.'"

"Youtsey said, 'Yes.' I then went back and reported. I told Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard to go and be in the hall of the Executive building, and I then left. I said, 'What did you do?'"

"Youtsey said: 'I went and got the cartridges. When I went back Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard were in the hall, and I unlocked the door and let them in and gave them the cartridges.' I again interrupted and asked Youtsey as to what he did with the cartridges, and he said: 'I gave them to Jim Howard. He was the last man who went in the door.'"

"I said, 'How many did you give him?' and he said, 'I gave him the whole box.' I said, 'Mr. Youtsey, who fired the shot?' and he said, 'I cannot tell you. I did not see him. I said, 'What did you do when you let them in?' He said, 'I stood near the door.' I said, 'You gave the cartridges to Jim Howard?' 'Yes, sir.' 'Where did you get the cartridges?'"

"He said: 'I got them from Powell and Clements, on Main street, in Cincinnati. On the 22d of January I wrote him and told him to send a box of 35-55 smokeless steel cartridges, Winchester.'"

"I said: 'Was he shot with a Winchester rifle?' He said: 'The cartridges fit either a Winchester or a Martin.'"

"I said: 'How much did you send them?'"

"He said: 'I sent them a postoffice order for a dollar.'"

"Mr. Youtsey stopped, and I said to him: 'Mr. Youtsey, you have just told Colonel Campbell and told me that Monday morning you told to Governor Taylor and told him that Dick Combs was ready to do the shooting. If Taylor objected, and now you tell me on Tuesday morning you let Dick Combs into the office. How is that?'"

"Youtsey hesitated and then finally said: 'Well, those were the three men I let in. I looked at him and said: 'They say also that Berry Howard was in the left-hand lobby of the Legislature, and you say you let him in that room.' Youtsey finally said: 'Those are the three men I let in there.'"

seized: 'Yes, that is so.' He said: 'If it is necessary I can pardon him and he will be safe enough.' Youtsey then stopped and I asked: 'What did you do then?' Youtsey said: 'I told Colonel Campbell, as he told me, that you let certain people into Powers' office.'"

"Youtsey said, 'Yes.' I then went back and reported. I told Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard to go and be in the hall of the Executive building, and I then left. I said, 'What did you do?'"

"Youtsey said: 'I went and got the cartridges. When I went back Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard were in the hall, and I unlocked the door and let them in and gave them the cartridges.' I again interrupted and asked Youtsey as to what he did with the cartridges, and he said: 'I gave them to Jim Howard. He was the last man who went in the door.'"

"I said, 'How many did you give him?' and he said, 'I gave him the whole box.' I said, 'Mr. Youtsey, who fired the shot?' and he said, 'I cannot tell you. I did not see him. I said, 'What did you do when you let them in?' He said, 'I stood near the door.' I said, 'You gave the cartridges to Jim Howard?' 'Yes, sir.' 'Where did you get the cartridges?'"

"He said: 'I got them from Powell and Clements, on Main street, in Cincinnati. On the 22d of January I wrote him and told him to send a box of 35-55 smokeless steel cartridges, Winchester.'"

"I said: 'Was he shot with a Winchester rifle?' He said: 'The cartridges fit either a Winchester or a Martin.'"

"I said: 'How much did you send them?'"

"He said: 'I sent them a postoffice order for a dollar.'"

"Mr. Youtsey stopped, and I said to him: 'Mr. Youtsey, you have just told Colonel Campbell and told me that Monday morning you told to Governor Taylor and told him that Dick Combs was ready to do the shooting. If Taylor objected, and now you tell me on Tuesday morning you let Dick Combs into the office. How is that?'"

"Youtsey hesitated and then finally said: 'Well, those were the three men I let in. I looked at him and said: 'They say also that Berry Howard was in the left-hand lobby of the Legislature, and you say you let him in that room.' Youtsey finally said: 'Those are the three men I let in there.'"

seized: 'Yes, that is so.' He said: 'If it is necessary I can pardon him and he will be safe enough.' Youtsey then stopped and I asked: 'What did you do then?' Youtsey said: 'I told Colonel Campbell, as he told me, that you let certain people into Powers' office.'"

"Youtsey said, 'Yes.' I then went back and reported. I told Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard to go and be in the hall of the Executive building, and I then left. I said, 'What did you do?'"

"Youtsey said: 'I went and got the cartridges. When I went back Berry Howard and Dick Combs and Jim Howard were in the hall, and I unlocked the door and let them in and gave them the cartridges.' I again interrupted and asked Youtsey as to what he did with the cartridges, and he said: 'I gave them to Jim Howard. He was the last man who went in the door.'"

"I said, 'How many did you give him?' and he said, 'I gave him the whole box.' I said, 'Mr. Youtsey, who fired the shot?' and he said, 'I cannot tell you. I did not see him. I said, 'What did you do when you let them in?' He said, 'I stood near the door.' I said, 'You gave the cartridges to Jim Howard?' 'Yes, sir.' 'Where did you get the cartridges?'"

"He said: 'I got them from Powell and Clements, on Main street, in Cincinnati. On the 22d of January I wrote him and told him to send a box of 35-55 smokeless steel cartridges, Winchester.'"

"I said: 'Was he shot with a Winchester rifle?' He said: 'The cartridges fit either a Winchester or a Martin.'"

"I said: 'How much did you send them?'"

"He said: 'I sent them a postoffice order for a dollar.'"

"Mr. Youtsey stopped, and I said to him: 'Mr. Youtsey, you have just told Colonel Campbell and told me that Monday morning you told to Governor Taylor and told him that Dick Combs was ready to do the shooting. If Taylor objected, and now you tell me on Tuesday morning you let Dick Combs into the office. How is that?'"

"Youtsey hesitated and then finally said: 'Well, those were the three men I let in. I looked at him and said: 'They say also that Berry Howard was in the left-hand lobby of the Legislature, and you say you let him in that room.' Youtsey finally said: 'Those are the three men I let in there